The Tango phenomenon today is a reality for the whole world involving people from all walks of life in three continents: Asia, America and Africa. The author has asked herself the reason for this retrieval of the Tango, in particular the dance. Why are people from all over the world going to the milongas ? A question that leads her into an interior journey, an experience of awareness, in search of the essence, the spirit of Tango that expresses the impulses of a universal soul, talking about sudden afflictions, an underlying melancholy, of loss and nostalgia but with also an intimate capacity for regeneration. A music that has the power to overcome pain in order to accept the loss, the force to appreciate life in order to push forward in search of adapting to new values, new dimensions.
