Seamus, a young teacher working on the northern coast of Scotland, believes that the mythical and magical creatures called selkies, who can shape-shift between human and seal, actually exist. For years he has longed to meet a selkie woman, and now he has the chance . . . or does he The beautiful young woman who has suddenly appeared in town certainly seems to fit the bill in his mind; but the hints she keeps dropping simultaneously bolster and dash the possibility. The problem is that she is only in town for a few days, and Seamus has only a short time to discover her secret and convince her to stay. A novella with unexpected depth and turns, Courting The Selkie is at once mysterious and humorous, exploring the multifarious facets of human relationships and love.
