BRISTOL PARK BOOKS, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 175 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the classic tradition of Mark Twain, Henry David Thoreau, Samuel Johnson, and H.L. Mencken, here is a thoughtful, reflective book of distilled wisdom epigrams. Webster s dictionary defines an epigram as A concise, clever, often paradoxical statement, i.e. a short piece of wisdom, often witty or satiric. These original epigrams by author Michael Lipsey ponder some of life s greatest questions about living, dying, love, mortality, religion, science, work, health and wealth. They get right to the point, giving fresh insights to those questions in a very few words.
