KW Publishers, 2015. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First edition. SSB Interviews: The A to Z Guide to Final Selection is a comprehensive, updated and all-encompassing book for students preparing to attend the interview conducted by the Indian Service Selection Board (SSB), which screens and recommends candidates for Commissioning as an Officer in IAF, Indian Navy, Coast Guard and Indian Army. This analytical book covers all the requisite topics/chapters, including Basic Screening tests, Psychological tests, Group testing, Personal Interview, personality Development, Service-Career details and Current Affairs/General Knowledge. It contains vital & relevant information, tips and guidelines. Concepts have been properly explained with diagrams/pictures/flow charts/sketches, etc. in the appendix. Candidates are provided with all additional forms/format, including additional topics for practice. This book debunks various myths surrounding the selection process with practical hints, besides explaining how to tackle the three basic tests by the GTO/IO and psychologist. Additional chapters on personality development, career in the Armed Forces and practice exercises/mock interviews, add to its uniqueness. Also, it is the first book by a serving officer on the subject hence is current, relevant and very much in tune with latest policies and guidelines for the SSB procedure. An essential partner in SSB preparation. It will be an asset for candidates aspiring to become leaders in the glorious Armed Forces of India. A comprehensive manual for SSB procedures, complete in all respects, which presents the entire SSB Interview procedure in a lucid and easy-to-comprehend manner. This book will greatly help prospective candidates in gaining familiarity with the selection system and be able to tackle various tests conducted there. I am sure it will draw a good response from the environment. ?
