Excerpt: . . . that the Latin American countries are appreciative of the importance of the canal and intend to be ready to take advantage of its opportunities. This line will receive a subvention from the Chilean Government, and it is now their plan to build first two 16-knot ships of 10, 000 tons, to follow with the construction of four others of the same or larger size to be in commission when the Panama Canal is opened, or soon afterwards. Following the publication by the newspapers of this information, which came to the Pan American Union in a cable from Capt. Fortescue, of its staff, who was then in Chile, a number of the big shipbuilding firms of the United States expressed a desire to compete for the construction of these vessels. Whether they are built in the United States or elsewhere they will prove a powerful...
